Police Crack Burglary Ring

5 Persons Arrested,
Stolen Items Found;
Probe Continuing

Granite City police, conducting an intensive investigation, cracked a burglary ring this week with the arrest of five persons.

They recovered three truck loads of loot taken from offices, plants and homes and several vehicles and found some narcotics paraphernalia.

Taken into custody at various points in the investigation were Joseph White, 24, of 728 Twenty-sixth place; Mrs. Diana Poe, same address; Floyd Wallace, 24, of 2014 Edwardsville road; Mickey C. Eilers, 19, of 1932 Fourth street; Madison; and Thomas Gerald Davis, 29, of 2314 Circle drive.

White was arrested while he was repairing a 1963 auto which had been stolen in Madison. He was charged with unlawful use of a weapon and resisting arrest. He waived preliminary hearing on the weapon charge, entered no plea on the other charge and was held on $11,000 bond pending a trial set May 18 on the second charge. He was taken to the Madison county jail.

Search Warrant
After that arrest, police obtained a search warrant for the home of Mrs. Poe and recovered numerous items which were taken last week from the Granite Sheet Metal Co. In addition to a motorcycle stolen in Madison county, a 7½ horsepower outboard motor stolen in a county burglary and a boat trailer and hitch stolen from the Namekiki Boat and Motor Co., the officers noted.

Mrs. Poe, whose husband, Jimmie Poe, currently is serving concurrent prison terms for burglaries, was charged with theft of more than $150. Police obtained another search warrant for Davis' house trailer and recovered check protector, checks and a typewriter stolen from the Granite Sheet Metal Co. in addition to numerous other household items stolen in burglaries dating back to more than a year.

Arrested in Madison
Davis was arrested Tuesday afternoon on a charge of theft of more than $150. He was held on $5000 bond for a preliminary hearing to be set in Edwardsville. Taken into custody at Eighth street and Madison avenue, he pleaded guilty to two other charges and was $210 for having no firearms identification and $35 for using fictitious license plates. He was transferred to the county jail. Eilers was arrested Monday after he fled the scene of a north St. Louis store where he was charged with theft of more than $150, waived preliminary

Kozielek May Renew Bid for Mayor's Post

A wide-open race for the office of mayor of Madison, resulting in a split in the rank and file of the Madison City Organization, loomed as a possibility today amid reports that acting mayor Ray Kozielek is "reconsidering" his April 17 withdrawal from the campaign.

Nominating petitions for Kozielek are in circulation. The development followed last week's endorsement by the city political leaders of Mike Sasyk, president of the Madison board of police and fire commissioners, as the organization's candidate for the mayor's post.

Kozielek, who also bid for endorsement but lost out by a 20-to-5 vote after a closed-door caucus, announced after the meeting he would not be a candidate for mayor.

No Comment Now
"I And the been deluged with letters and telephone calls asking me not to quit as a candidate for mayor," Kozielek said. "Naturally, these are causing me to give considerable thought to the matter. But I am not ready to make any statement at this time as to whether I will or will not be a candidate for mayor."

He admitted that petitions for his candidacy are in circulation, but said he did not object to the petitions and did not intend to initiate their circulation.

"The petitions have been placed in circulation for me by people who want me to run," Kozielek said.

At the same time, Chester McManaway, operator of a Madison insurance agency and a 15-year member of the Madison board of police and fire commissioners, is "considering" the race for mayor, but has not yet reached a definite decision as to his candidacy.

McManaway was among those mentioned as potential candidates during the Earth Day public symposium sponsored by a group of students known as the ASAP (Group Against Society's Pollution).

Daylight Time Is Here Again—2 a.m. Sunday

That time is here again! Daylight saving time, whereby everyone gains an hour of daylight in the evening, will become effective Sunday in the area.

Officially, daylight time starts at 2 a.m. Sunday when clocks will be set ahead one hour. Actually, the clock changing may be done anytime before retiring Saturday night and the result still will be the same—the loss of an hour's sleep.

The hour will be regained, however, on the last Sunday of October when the period of daylight time comes to an official end and clocks are set back an hour.

11 Persons Hurt In Area Crashes
Eleven persons were injured in eight of 16 traffic crashes occurring in the area this week.

Lynnette Whittington, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Whittington, 2015 Pontoon road, was injured when she walked into the right side of an auto driven by Carlene B. Buegner, 2208 Richmond avenue, at 3:45 p.m. Wednesday in front of Namekiki school on Pontoon road.

She was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital with contusions and abrasions to the legs, elbow, forehead, face, thigh and knee and was transferred to Belleville Memorial Hospital following x-rays.

Drivers Injured
Briney Fowler, 57, of 2132 Washington avenue, and Virginia Crawford, 34, of West Alton, Mo., were injured when their auto collided at 11 p.m. Wednesday at 21st street and Madison avenue.

They were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital from where Fowler was transferred to Firmin Desloge Hospital, St. Louis, and Crawford was transferred to the Alton Memorial Hospital.

Dashwood, Griffin To Head UF Drive

Dates, Goal of 1971 Campaign to be Set In Near Future

Chairman and co-chairman of this year's Tri-Cities United Fund campaign will be J. S. M. Dashwood, president of Union Division of Miles Laboratories, Inc., and Thomas F. Griffin, sub-district director of the United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO.

Announcement of the appointments by the UF executive committee was made yesterday morning by Henry D. Karandjoff, president of the UF board, following a meeting at the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank board room.

At a later meeting, the UF board will set the dates for the 1971 campaign. It also will set the goal. Last year, $370,771 was raised.

Dashwood, who has been president of Union Division since November 1967, commented: "One gift to the United Fund was many miracles, but if the people of the Quad-Cities don't work on the United Fund campaign themselves and give it all they can, then there are many miracles that probably won't get done in the area—the Visiting Nurses, the USO, the Children's Home, the help to the mentally retarded, the aid to artists, the attack on the social ills like drugs, and a score of others."

Degree at Oxford
Michael Dashwood is a planter's son, born on a tea estate in the hills of Ceylon. He traveled to England for his schooling and obtained a degree in chemistry at Oxford University in 1958. While in the army with an armored brigade, he met his wife, Jean, who was a nurse.

Transfer the war he traveled extensively as a salesman for Monsanto's English subsidiary, including a visit to St. Louis, where he became general manager of a factory in Wales for Miles Laboratories Ltd. and named to the board of directors.

Dashwood was appointed president of Miles Chemicals Division in 1966 after he had been transferred to Elkhardt, Ind., in 1962. A year later he became president of the Union Division, which was formed from the Chemicals Division and the Chemicals Refining Co. The old company offices are in Madison.

State Payroll for Area Published
A listing of Quad-City workers who were on the state payroll during 1969, compiled from records of the office of State Auditor Michael H. Jones, appears on page 7 of today's issue.

The payroll for 1969 includes 341 Quad-City workers who received $1,517,126 in wages—down 95 persons and $120,469 from 1968 with the change from a Democratic to Republican administration.

A. O. Smith Cutback Due to Truck Strike

A cutback in production at A. O. Smith Corp. will become effective Monday, partially because of the teamsters strike, but also due in part to a seasonal slowdown prior to the customary changover of production lines for new models, a plant spokesman announced today.

One assembly line, cutting off about 150 workers, will be taken out of production next Monday and will continue down until after the model changover is completed, the spokesman said.

The usual spring shutdown of all lines for the model change is expected in about three or four weeks. It was said the plant has been operating three lines.

The teamsters strike by Local 600 at St. Louis has interfered with some freight movements, but virtually all outgoing shipper's orders are being filled, the spokesman said.

However, the plant's operation of the Illinois Association of Junior High School Students Councils will take place this Friday and Saturday at the Coolidge Junior high school and Granite City high school auditorium.

The two-day session is expected to attract over 700 students from throughout the state and 250 adults.

Miss Dorothy Hinson, chairman of arrangements, will represent the host school, Coolidge; while Walter Padgett is to represent Grigsby Junior high school, and Frasier Junior high school represented by Dave Painter.

Miss Smith to Speak
Miss Hinson announced the theme of the convention will be "Student Council: Youth's Symphony," stressing the need for "Working together in and out of harmony." Lt. Gov. Paul Simon and U.S. Senator Ralph J. Abraham are scheduled to speak at the assembly sessions.

The first general assembly is set for 7:30 p.m. on Friday at the high school after registration at 2 p.m. Entertainment will be furnished by the Check-board Square and the Coolidge speech department will present skits and readings.

Need to Organize
"That amazes me," he added, suggesting Granite City's organization to "present and pick up" complaints. "We just can't go to court with an unsupported verbal complaint or an unsigned note; you have to present evidence to get an injunction. We need witnesses."

Keehnier cited an example in which his office obtained an injunction within 48 hours to halt pollution by a St. Clair county firm after a dozen bandits gathered and stood behind their complaints. Keehnier's office is at 207 West Washington avenue in Belleville.

Henry Bieniecki, chairman of the Granite City Air Pollution Control board, said:
"We're trying now to get a budget to hire a full-time staff to enforce the clean air laws, and we need public support. Something you will have to decide," Keehnier said.

He added that his office would handle pollution complaints for southern Illinois, has yet to receive its first complaint from Madison county.

Budget Ready Now
Bieniecki said the clean air board's $17,000 budget is before the city council now. "One alderman doesn't mean much. A half dozen would cause me to be a little more excited, and I'm sure a couple dozen calls would stir him to act."

It was Keehnier, who said he said they are having no food stocks. Main store operators explained they have their own fleets of trucks and drivers and customarily unload directly from freight cars, and therefore are able to keep their warehouses stocked.

Talks which may lead to an early return to work by the striking St. Louis teamsters were agreed upon yesterday between Harold J. Gibbons, teamster head, and trucking firms. Local 600 teamsters have been off their jobs since April 1.

Convention at Coolidge
A delegates' dance is planned for 9 p.m. in the Coolidge gymnasium.

Lt. Gov. Simon will speak at the 9 a.m. general assembly session on Saturday followed at 10:30 a.m. by discussion sessions until 11:15 a.m. when candidates for election as officers of the state association will be provided by the Coolidge.

Peace Corps Speaker
David Thompson of Granite City, a former Peace Corps worker in Nepal, will address the general assembly session during the afternoon, as will a representative of the Peace Corps office in Chicago whose topic will be on the "School Partnership Program."

Saturday's entertainment will be provided by the Coolidge Latin American Rhythm Ensemble and by the vocal music department of the school.

The closing session is scheduled for 2:45 p.m. when Senator Smith will be the speaker. There also will be an installation of officers.

During discussion groups at 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. Saturday.

GC Ready To Borrow $100,000 After May 1

Council Oks Ordinance To Issue Tax Warrant; Mayor Won't Sign

Council members voted 13-to-2 Monday night to issue the city's first tax anticipation warrant in over two decades.

The warrant, in the amount of $100,000, is to be issued after May 1 with the money to be borrowed from the First Grand City National Bank at an interest rate of 5%.

Council members face a problem with the warrant. Mayor Partney said in January and repeated again this week that he would not sign the warrant to borrow money.

"That's going to cause difficulties," Alderman Nomm remarked, "in the coming year. That has no legal opinion on the warrant if the mayor refuses to sign it."

"Snowballing" Problem
A former Finance committee chairman, Alderman Rutledge, pointed out the city must repay the borrowed money with the first new tax money received and that once the procedure of borrowing is established, it snowballs each year. Nomm answered that if the council votes for the added tax for sewer maintenance and collects an additional $112,000 to be earmarked for sewer repairs, the deficit could be wiped out in a year's time.

Moerlein added that the city has at least $8000 in fees and interest that the city is faced with this year, and Boyd, a member of the Finance committee, remarked that the city has faced this year, and Boyd, a member of the Finance committee, remarked that the city has faced this year, and Boyd, a member of the Finance committee, remarked that the city has faced this year.

Budget Challenged
Earlier, the council discussed Mayor's proposed budget for 1970-71. Alderman Robertson, who heads the Salary Nominations committee, challenged the amounts the mayor included for pay increases, saying the council's action last year in giving the $50 increases, the mayor stated.

Nomm said he studied the mayor's budget and noticed several cutbacks are indicated. "We'll never do it," Robertson remarked.

Whitmer, who urged approval of the tax warrant to provide necessary city services, said he hoped he would be included by the council's majority in the budget. "I'd like to be in it wherever you meet."

The discussion closed, Mayor Partney recommended an audit of the comptroller's books on April 30. "That will be the last day we will have a comptroller, so the books should be checked before they are turned over to the city clerk," he said. The council concurred.

Last year, the council voted to abolish the office of comptroller as of May 1.

Program on Vietnam
Carl Pashoff will speak on "Vietnam—As I See It" at the April meeting of Travelers Abroad at 7:30 p.m. Monday at Frasier school.

Organize and Demand Clean Air. Panelists Tell Audience of 200 at GCCHS

"What can we do about pollution?" Granite City's asked. The 200 persons who were gathered at Granite City high school Tuesday night were given some answers by a panel of experts during the Earth Day public symposium sponsored by a group of students known as the ASAP (Group Against Society's Pollution).

The experts agreed—"The public gets what it demands—and Granite City hasn't been very demanding."

Granite City must be willing to back up and support demands by giving evidence in court or at a hearing, they were told.

Other solutions suggested for quick results were to shut off the auto engine when stopped for a long freight train; forego convenience and stop buying items in throw-away bottles and cans and stop open burning of trash that adds smoke, particulates and the noxious odors of burning plastics.

Prof. Erwin Hoelscher of Washington University who is technical secretary of the Granite City Air Pollution Control board, commented that on his tours of Granite City he has seen 35-gallon drum and trash pits used for burning trash at virtually every home in the city.

"All that adds to pollution," he stressed.

An answer was furnished by Jim Keehnier, assistant attorney general, who said Solid Waste Disposal districts can be formed for one to five counties by referendum.

He added that his office would handle pollution complaints for southern Illinois, has yet to receive its first complaint from Madison county.

Need to Organize
"That amazes me," he added, suggesting Granite City's organization to "present and pick up" complaints. "We just can't go to court with an unsupported verbal complaint or an unsigned note; you have to present evidence to get an injunction. We need witnesses."

Clean Air Budget Under Study by Council

A proposed $17,000 budget for the Granite City Air Pollution Control board came under fire during Monday night's council session, but no action was taken other than to refer the recommendation to the council's Finance committee for study.

Attacking the budget was Alderman Nomm, who stressed the city's dire financial problems. "I have no objection if there are results, but if we go ahead and spend $17,000 and there's no change, then we're wasting taxpayers' money," Nomm remarked.

Defending the budget was Alderman Whitmer, a member of the Clean Air board. "We're wheel-spinning now, but the city cannot enforce control laws unless it has a full-time staff. This budget includes funds for hiring a new graduate engineer to serve as assistant technical secretary or a full-time basis," Whitmer stated.

Full-Time Help—Or Else
He continued, "Unless we get some full-time help, it's my opinion we should abolish the commission and let the state air board take over. Only with a full-time assistant technical secretary can we qualify for an exemption from state controls and launch our own enforcement program."

"I'll agree. We may be wasting money now, but the commission has accomplished what it can. It needs authority that it cannot obtain unless the state exemption is granted. And we can get that exemption only if we proceed with this budget," Whitmer added.

In presenting the budget to the council in a letter, Henry Bienecki, chairman of the city clean air board, noted the cost would amount to "the price of a package of cigarettes for each resident."

Deserving Program
Bienecki said the board had unanimously accepted a study by a consulting engineering firm to provide "the residents of a heavy-industry community the needed and deserved effective air pollution control program."

"Recognizing the present financial difficulties of the city, the board recommends the implementation of the minimum program for an expenditure of $17,000 for 1970-71, and that an ordinance be passed creating the position of a full-time assistant technical secretary at a salary not to exceed $10,000 a year."

"As outlined in the report, the assistant technical secretary would be a graduate engineer with little or no field experience, who would carry out the routine daily monitoring and other activities of an effective control program under the direction of Prof. Erwin Hoelscher (part-time technical secretary)."

Problems are Complex
"Problems involving complex

industrial equipment and consultation with experts of our local industries could then receive the attention they require by Prof. Hoelscher. It is expected that after gaining several years of experience, a young engineer would probably be attracted by higher salaries in larger cities and would have to be replaced. Having the control program under the supervision of Prof. Hoelscher would give it a continuity and reliability that would otherwise be difficult to achieve.

"In view of the continuing shortage of engineers who are training in the field of air pollution control," Bienecki continued, "it is urged that this recommendation be given early consideration by the council so that applicants who are graduating in June can be interviewed in the next few weeks before they are all committed to other jobs."

"In handling air pollution complaints and problems, we feel that an effective air pollution control program is desired by our residents for the protection of their health and property."

Local Responsibility
"The consulting engineer report makes it very clear that our local problems and responsibilities will not be taken care of for us by the state or federal governments and that we must turn to our own resources in the same manner as in police and fire protection."

While Alderman Nomm said he did not believe Granite City should spend money to provide a training grounds for young graduate engineers, Whitmer said the solution was only way in which the city could operate with present funds. "I would like for the Finance committee to submit its recommendation at next week's meeting," he added.

Alderman Poulos said he was receiving complaints from residents near the Lipsett Steel Products Co. on boxer burning and asked that the firm be notified of the complaints. Whitmer explained the firm

Schooley Named to Replace Dailey as School Attorney

William Schooley, a Granite City attorney, was designated Monday night by Board Member Maurice Dailey, attorney for the school district for about the past 15 years.

The vote was 6-1, with Board Member George E. Moore Jr. opposed to the change. Reports that the board was considering a switch in lawyers have circulated from time to time for several years. At one time, it was indicated that a majority wanted to make a change, but that the majority could not agree on a successor.

Handled Bond Issue

The board previously named Schooley as its attorney for the $4,750,000 construction bond issue approved by voters in December 1968, but retained Dailey as its counsel for matters not related to the bonds.

Board members have agreed with the terms offered them, the board hired Attorney Harold Baker Jr. of Belleville to advise it in its dealings with faculty members. Dailey handled the other school legal matters during the same period.

Board members have said privately for some time that they would rather have a more politically-oriented attorney. They have been concerned about the generally light turnout in school board elections—turnouts which sometimes made board members vulnerable to opposition from various groups, including school employees desiring greater salary offers.

Election Turnout Pattern
Total votes cast in Granite City school elections have included 2183 in 1960, 4512 in the following year, 3426 in 1962, 2908 in 1963, 4396 in 1964, 4117 in 1965, 1167 in 1966, 1473 in 1967, 3124 in 1968, 1905 in 1969 and 3121 this spring.

Population of the school district is believed to exceed 50,000. An occasionally awkward situation has been that Dailey is the attorney for one local bank, while the school board and its financial matters have been oriented to another bank.

Prompt, Correct Advice
The often considered discharge was made more difficult by the fact that nearly all regard Dailey as a master of school law—an advisor able to provide prompt legal answers, and one who has helped the $20-million-a-year enterprise steer a generally sound course between the numerous legal shoals that plague many school systems.

Among the thornier legal challenges successfully handled in recent years was a suit alleging that the school system did not have a valid title to the campus on which Coolidge Junior High school is situated. If the complicated case had been lost, the district might have had to pay a substantial sum of money to the descendant of a former owner of the land.

Dailey's tenure as school attorney began in 1960, during the past decade and a half, Dailey handled all litigation for the school system, including times in the early 1960s when teachers and custodians called strikes and the school district prepared legal moves against them.

Some school employees felt Dailey represented the district too zealously in matters affecting their individual interests. Some of this enmity was communicated to board members, who were urged to seek an attorney attuned to advancement of the union movement.

The contentious-Kewanee rivalry also is seen as a factor in the effort to transfer school legal duties to another attorney. As a former member once said the dilemma, "Should we get rid of somebody whose aid helped us to look good, and to make a good record? Or should we not worry about that and instead use our patronage authority to get more help in elections?"

Discussion of the issue began Monday night with Board Member Monroe Worthen suggesting that appointment of the school attorney be done annually at the April board reorganization meetings, rather than the legal duties being handled continuously by one individual until he is notified to step.

When the proposal was made into a motion, it was approved by a school policy, effective immediately.

Harold Davis then moved to appoint Schooley as the attorney. After he amended the motion to provide for the hiring to be subject to negotiation of terms between Schooley and the administrative staff, the 6-1 vote was tabulated.

No Basis for Change
Moore commented that Schooley had done "a good job on the bond issue," and said he had nothing against Schooley. "But I fail to see any basis for making a change in our attorney at this time," Moore added.

The contract with Schooley is expected to be considered at the next board meeting. The board voted Monday night to change its schedule from the second Monday and fourth Wednesday to the second and fourth Mondays.

Advisor to Townships
Schooley also serves as the attorney for Granite City township.

Dailey is attorney for the Granite City Housing Authority. Dailey heads a Granite City law firm which specializes in civil legal work, including estates. Schooley is the current head of a general law firm which has seen three earlier heads of the firm seek and win judgeships and other public elective offices.

Save Our Depot Group Organizes

Formation of an organization to resist Department of Defense plans to close the Granite City Army Depot, and establishment of a general office headquarters at 1222 Nineteenth street, was announced today.

Name "Save Our Depot Association" (SODA), the new organization, operating under a not-for-profit state charter, is designed as an "umbrella-type" central body to coordinate all efforts to prevent closure of the local military facility, according to Eddy Tower, SODA executive assistant.

Total community involvement is anticipated by formation of an executive board representing an cross-section of the entire Greater St. Louis area. Members will be drawn from leaders of civic, political, union, veterans, local governments, welfare, fraternal religious, ethnic, social, professional, business, industrial, educational, Chamber of Commerce and other interested groups.

The executive board will hold its initial meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday at Burns cafeteria, when a president will be elected and by-laws governing SODA's activities will be adopted. Invitations have been mailed, but any interested person may attend.

Overall purpose of the organization is to organize, plan and execute a total community action program for St. Clair and Madison counties to oppose closing of the Army Depot and to create "on behalf of all citizens" an awareness of the need to forestall climatic underemployment, dislocation of families and to avoid tragic financial impact on those dependent on the Depot for employment and community businesses and services directly and indirectly affected by the Depot closing.

Persons wishing to volunteer their services or contribute funds to support operational costs may write SODA at the Granite City office. Information may be obtained by calling 451-4867.

New Airport Plan Announced; Site Still Undecided

Agreement by the state of Illinois and the city of St. Louis to jointly sponsor development of a major airport on the Illinois side of the metropolitan area at an estimated cost of $300 millions was announced yesterday by Illinois Gov. Richard Ogilvie and A. J. Cervantes, mayor of St. Louis.

No mention was made of a potential site for the proposed airport and Gov. Ogilvie said he would be about a year and a half before a site is approved. He pointed out that a site would have to be considered by the state, by the city, the airlines, and then reviewed and approved by the Federal Aviation Commission.

Under the plan the airport, which Ogilvie said is expected to be completed by 1980, would be operated by an Illinois-St. Louis Authority which eventually would also take over operation of St. Louis Lambert Airport under a lease or purchase arrangement. Illinois and St. Louis would have equal representation of the Authority.

Plan Bond Financing
Financing of the airport would be revenue bonds sold by the Authority and repaid with revenue from airport users, principally the airlines.

In addition to ratification of the plan by St. Louis, Ogilvie said that the joint city-state development proposal has been approved by the Federal Aviation Administration, the United States Department of Transportation and the air carriers.

The announcement was the first significant disclosure of action toward development of an airport plan since the governor announced a year ago that he considered the facility essential to revitalization of the Madison-St. Clair and Monroe county area.

Present were the new officers and Kathy Ambuehl, Sharon Cantor, Pamela Collins, Venus Elms, Paula Elmore, Debbie Elkins, Tamara Keaton, Diane Pickett, Rhonda Meyers, Laura Wilson, Catherine Ortiz, Brenda Smith and Melinda Pickett.

Ottwein Wants Frozen Road Funds Invested

State Senator Merrill Ottwein urged Tuesday that "frozen" highway funds be invested at interest.

He reported receiving "a letter from Darl Dettmer, president of the Edwardsville Area Association of Commerce and Industry, regarding gas taxes and other earmarked taxes collected in Madison and St. Clair Counties during the highway fund freeze."

"He requested that state and federal agencies be asked to place these funds in interest-bearing accounts in Madison and St. Clair area banks until they are usable, I agree. Upon inquiry, I find that $66 million of these funds are accumulated and still a part of the general operating fund of the Illinois Division of Highways."

"I am asking the Division of Highways and the governor's office that this suggestion be implemented, and that the interest earned also be applied to area construction projects, when they can be freed."

"I also suggest that area interests, especially Chambers of Commerce, support this request with communications both to the office of the governor and to William Collins, director, Division of Highways, Department of Public Works and Buildings in Springfield. I don't believe it would be out of place to include, in the same communication, encouragement toward ending the very unfair road freeze itself."

Role of Elementary Principals Reviewed

How to make their "man-in-the-middle" role a central force for improving education occupied the attention of 600 elementary school principals meeting at Philadelphia last week.

Participants included Donald E. Kopp of the Namoki school and Le Reid of the Frohman school.

Threaded through five days of workshops, group discussions and general sessions sponsored by the National Association of Elementary School Principals was the theme that a principal's middle ground—between school superintendent and teachers, school and community, militants and "establishment"—is strategic terrain. Executive Secretary William L. Pharis said, "The middle is where educational policy is translated into programs, and the principal must be the bearing which translates potential friction into useful momentum."

The group favors reading as a national priority, family life education, environmental studies and increased financial support for elementary education. It opposes attacks on schools by extremist groups, misassessments and discrimination against principals on the basis of "race, sex, marital status, religious affiliation or ethnic background" and "the tendency of many radio and TV programs printed material and motion pictures to be superficial, inane and senseless violent."

City Pays $1500 Claim For Fall on Sidewalk

An out-of-court settlement of $1500 was approved Monday night by Granite City Council members for Mrs. Marie Pais, 70, of 2294 Hodges avenue, who required plastic surgery after a sidewalk fall last Dec. 9 in the 1800 block of Edison avenue.

On a recommendation by Assistant City Atty. Harry Hartman, the council voted 10-4-6 for the settlement based on hospital expenses of $25 and other costs.

A notice was received from lawyers for Ann Varge, Rural Route One, that she intends to file suit for injuries suffered to her right arm, elbow and hip in a fall last Dec. 15 on the sidewalk along the north side of 18th street between Grand avenue and State street. The notice was referred to the city attorney.

Council members objected to the out-of-court settlement for Mrs. Pais, but voted approval after Nann pointed out a 70-year-old woman who stumbled and fell over a raised section of sidewalk could probably obtain a $5000 judgment from a jury. The aldermen also called for

MHS Strong Third in 14-School Relay Meet

Trackmen of Madison finished a strong third at the 14-school Roxana relays Tuesday.

No Trojans took team points in the field events and on the cinders. Host and champion Roxana outscored the Trojans who were individually carrying the MHS banner in a number of events.

Madison's 54 total was less than Mascoutah's 58 and Roxana's 71. In earlier dual meets, MHS had lost to both.

Other schools scored: Staunton 36, Carlinville 31, Triad 28, Columbia 15, O'Fallon 14, Highland 12, Bethalto nine and Southwestern of Plasa one. Duplo, Jerseyville and Alton Marquette earned no points.

Varsity and freshman-sophomore half-mile relay events were captured by Trojans in meet-record-breaking times.

1.3-3.7 Half-Mile
Edwardo Chandler sprang from the blocks with the baton. The pass went to Don Turner and Larry Mosby, with George Tyus anchoring for a 1:33.7 composite clocking. A Roxana 1:34.2 mark had stood since 1961.

The frosh-soph squads of James Youngblood, Gerald Pouncil, Joe Willie Jenkins and Chandler stopped the watches at 1:36.8. A 1963 Roxana squad had set a mark of 1:39.3.

Chandler and Tyus dashed the century for first and second place, 10.2 and 10.0, in the shot put. Chandler jumped 19.4 in the long jump.

In field events, Henry Rhodes threw for a non-point gathering sixth place in the shot put. Chandler jumped 19.4 in the long jump.

Robert Pryor, Don Turner, Jenkins and Ford were fourth. Because of a mixup on the field, they ran with the slower finals heat and this was a possible cause for the disappointing result.

In the 280-yard high hurdles shuttle, Jenkins, Pryor, Holmes and Ford were third.

Four squads, including the Trojans, lowered the meet's 480-yard low hurdles shuttle mark.

Warriors Gain Tennis Shutout Over Alton

Mike Gaines reversed the tennis season-opening loss of the Warriors first singles spot, downing Alton's Bob Simpson, and helped boost the Warriors to a 4-0 win over the Red Birds here Monday.

The second doubles match, involving the Granite City pair of George Smith and Duayne Parrish, was ended by rain after each duo had won a set.

In the season opener, Simpson had edged Mike Loftus in three sets, while playing first singles, leaving GCHS with a 4-1 victory.

The match win over Simpson (6-3, 6-4) is believed to signal the gradual improvement of the evenly-balanced Warrior strength.

After the matches, Gaines, who had taken the tough top singles role in all but one outing, had reached a 5-4 win-loss record.

Bill Reeder moved his record to 7-2 as the second singles man. Loftus upset his mark to 6-3.

The doubles players, Mike Pieper, Smith, Joe Papes and Parrish, have shifted partners through the season. As expected, the second doubles spot for sets.

Auto Speedway to Open With Spring, Spalding

MAY DAY! MAY DAY! It's a distress call and it's Friday, May 1.

For Quad-City auto racing fans, there should be no distress. For them, the call is May Evening, May Evening.

Because on Friday, May 1, the Tri-City Speedway will be back in gear, announcing springtime with the roar of engines.

The Capital Racing Association (CRA), which has headquarters in Jefferson City, Mo., will be making the local speedway its home every Friday.

The CRA will run every Saturday at a Jefferson City oval.

Super Modified Cars
CRA will not bring jalopies here but, plans to exclusively drive super modified cars on the half-mile banked oval.

Opening night here may cause some problems for the CRA chauffeurs. The Tri-City Speedway's half-mile oval is slightly smaller and not nearly as steeply banked as the Jeff City five-eighths-mile track, where the CRA pilots drove regularly last.

But, for native Granite City, an Web Spalding, the track will be no new experience. He has held the half-mile track record since August 1966.

Recently, he has been making semi-regular visits with the U. S. Auto Club midge car caravan.

Homeown Champion?
The pre-season guessing game gives Spalding the best chance for giving the hometown a homeown champion.

In addition to his knowledge of the local oval and his record of being the Illinois-Missouri national champion, Spalding is joining the CRA with a brand new car.

It was built in Culver City, Calif., by Steve Stapp at a cost of $20,000. Stapp's father was a championship-division driver during the 1930s and once won the Indy 500.

Another "no stranger" to the Tri-City Speedway will be 1965 and 1969 CRA seasons champion, Roy Hibbard. Hibbard was the 1963 modified champion of the local speedway.

Other top name drivers in the field are to be Jerry Blum of Galesburg, Jerry Weld of Kansas City and Bill Utz of Sedalia, Mo.

TOO MANY IN BUSHES. Earl Anderson stroked an eagle and a birdie but double bogies took their toll as he finished two-over-par for GCHS in a team win at Collinsville.

Eagles Spark High-Flying Golf Warriors

Led by Tim Schwendeman's three-under-par round, Granite City high beat Collinsville 147-152 at the Camelot links Monday.

The winning difference can be found on the scorecards of Schwendeman and Earl Anderson. Each golfer's play at more than one hole earned the label of a "feathered vertebrae," a two double-bogies hurt his card. He finished with 37.

Bob Peacher's 38 and Bob Zellerman's 40 also counted toward the team total.

Other Warriors scores: Gary Zimmer 42, and Dave Rolland, Jack Eagles and Mike Willis, birdies and let slip his par-or-under pace on only one hole with a bogey late in the round. He completed the par-35 course with a 32.

Anderson took an eagle on a different short par-four hole. Driving to the green in one swing, he then sank a ten-foot putt. After the No. 2 flag eagle, Anderson added a birdie, but a "feathered vertebrae" hurt his card. He finished with 37.

Bob Peacher's 38 and Bob Zellerman's 40 also counted toward the team total.

EAGLE IN HAND. Warrior Tim Schwendeman shot an eagle and two birdies to pace his teammates in a 147-152 win at Collinsville Monday.

Fielding by MHS Shows Improvement

With new fielding assignments and junior Courtney Prothro in his first start on the mound, Madison played in a scoreless contest until the fifth inning here Monday. The victory went to Roxana 4-1 when rain ended the game after five innings.

A junior lefthander, P. J. Davis, will probably start for MHS at Triad today.

The shifting of Trojans to new diamond positions seemed to make a dramatic difference in fielding. MHS made only one error.

Several Trojans seemed to be comfortable at their new positions. Bob Scott's catcher's mask and mitt appeared to suit him well. Charles Pogorelac filled in at Scott's old short-stop place. The former regular catcher, Mark Wells, found a home at third base.

Prothro held the hill for 4½ innings but ran into trouble when Rick McCormick knocked a two-run triple.

Allowing four runs, three singles, the critical triple and three walks, Prothro struck out four. Phil Davis relieved for the last two outs.

For Madison's run, Pogorelac led off with a single and advanced to second on an infield out. Austin Lewis hit a ground-er to short that glanced off the fielder's glove, enabling Pogorelac to score.

Other Trojan hits were by James Gardner, Scott and Wells.

HOT BAT FOR COLLEGE CHAMPS. Native Granite Cityan, Gregg Patton is carry a .457 batting average for the defending NCAA College division championship, Illinois State University team.

Gregg Patton Swinging 'Big Bat' for ISU

Illinois State University third baseman Gregg Patton, a 1966 GCHS graduate, won the battle of the bulge this spring, and now he's winning baseball games for the ISU Redbirds.

Patton is batting a hefty .457, the top mark for the Redbirds. Before, he was hitting a sizzling .533 with 16 hits in his first 30 times at bat. Leading the team in runs batted in with 11, he has also played a good defensive game at third to help the Redbirds post a 10-1 record in their first 12 nonconference games.

Pre-season dieting may be the reason that the stocky Granite Cityan opened at mid-season form.

"Greg has to fight a weight problem," Coach Duffy Bass explains. "If he just looks at a couple of hamburgers, he puts on weight. He reported at more than 190 pounds this year, and I told him he had to be down to 187 to make the spring trip. Well, he worked and starved himself. The day before we went south, he weighed 183 and one-half pounds."

The results show up in the box score, but the 5-10 Patton has always been a good hitter. He hit .407 last season in 27 times at bat as a part-time performer. For Illinois State's NCAA College Division championship team.

He vacates third base at times in favor of Marine veteran Jim Brownlee of Waukegan, but can stay in the lineup as an outfielder.

"Patton is a solid all-around player," Bass says. "He's a full swinger who takes a good rip until he gets two strikes. Then he lets up a little bat speed to make sure he moves the ball somewhere. He has struck out only three times. His outs are 'good' outs."

He handles all the plays at third. He has a nice arm and good hands. He's a smart player with a good background from a good baseball community, and knows how to play the hitters."

Bass, pointing his squad for the Interstate Conference race, has three more nonconference games scheduled before the three-game set at Eastern Illinois on April 24-25.

Greg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ples Patton, 2909 Cayuga street.

First Century of Baseball Recalled

A long-playing stereo record The "First 100 Years" has been released in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of professional baseball. Narrated by Jimmy Stewart and Curt Gowdy, it combines the stories, sounds, memories and action from 1869 through 1969. Included are the actual voices of such famed players as Cy Young, Honus Wagner, Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth and many others, teammates who "tell it like it was" on and off the field. Also interviewed are Satchel Paige, Tony Conigliaro, Ted Williams, Dizzy Dean, Mickey Mantle, Jackie Robinson and Casey Stengel.

Stewart recalls how baseball has touched the emotions of Americans, as the listener hears again memorable awards, songs, jokes and farewells of the diamond.

The album contains play-by-play highlights from the '33 World Series to the 1968 Tiger comeback. It also features scribe Larsen's perfect game, Bobby Thompson's home run, DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak, the Go-Go White Sox, a Koufax no-hitter, Mauer's home run, the 1918 Maris, Lavegatto's double, Mickey Owen's passed ball, Feller's 17 strikeouts, Geronzi's catch—65 of the most dramatic plays ever.

The record is being sold through the mail by all the major league clubs for $5.

Fans may write to St. Louis Cardinals, Baseball Record, Box 100, St. Louis, Mo. 63101.

High-Rated Maroon Golfers Show Why

Prep golfers around the state are worrying about defending state champion Belleville West. The Maroons gave the Warriors cause to pause by winning at Granite City's home links at Arlington Tuesday.

While sports observers far from this area's golf scene were rating the Maroons No. 1, the Warriors saw closeup that Belleville West is the big threat for the Southwestern Conference championship tournament to be hosted by GCCHS May 4.

Tim Schwendeman scribbled a 39 scorecard rounding Arlington's par 36. His teammates scored: Dave Rouland 40, Bob Zellerman 44, Earl Anderson 45, Jack Eagles 45, Gary Zimmer 46, Bob Peacher 47 and Mike Willis 47.

Maroon Kim Littlefield clubbed the best of the day, 36, backed by Rusty Pierce's 36 and Jay Haas' 39.

Haas, pro-golfer Bob Goalby's nephew, last Friday set an all-time course record at Camelot for 35 score, shooting a 27.

This area's Illinois High School Association district tournament, for which GCCHS made a bid, has gone to Belleville East at the Tamarack Country Club.

Smith-'It Takes 2'; Adlai-'Add Newsmen'

Recalling certain past elections in which debate planning collapsed, the staffs of U. S. Senator Ralph T. Smith and his November foe, Adlai Stevenson II, clashed this week over why a proposed full scale debate of public debates has not yet been held.

Dan Walker, campaign manager for Stevenson, said the latter "is not interested in simply providing his opponent with a format for making empty campaign speeches. He is concerned to hard questioning by informed newsmen. He is concerned only with his selfish interests and not with the public's right to know."

James Mack, Smith's campaign director, said after a joint meeting Monday, "It is obvious Stevenson's representatives have met only to scuttle the debates while attempting to force the appearance of negotiations. Walker said in our first meeting the debates would be to Smith's advantage because Stevenson had an edge of name recognition. This is callous indifference to the public's right to know."

The senator renewed his offer to take part in head-to-head debates, asserting that he had originally agreed to direct confrontations "without interference from any other person."

Court Dismisses Landfill Suit, Permit Denied

A mandamus suit to force Madison county officials to issue a landfill permit to the Chouteau Island Corp. was dismissed Monday by Associate Circuit Judge William Sunderman of Coles county who was called here to hear the case.

He ruled that a landfill which the firm previously operated on Chouteau Island had been abandoned after it had been ordered closed two years ago by the state and county because of operating violations.

As the landfill had operated as a non-conforming use under the county zoning ordinance, the county would be required to obtain a special use permit from the county under the zoning ordinance, it could obtain a landfill permit.

It is unlikely that any change would be granted in the status quo. The suit was filed by residents of the Chouteau Island area who have expressed strong opposition to the operation of another landfill there.

The Madison county board of supervisors also has shown opposition to the landfill, maintaining that it would make Madison county a dumping ground for refuse from the area.

Sam Murphy of St. Louis, president of the company, said he was not aware of the suit. He said he failed in the mandamus action, he would make no other effort to obtain a permit.

Leo Abell, agent for the Chouteau Corp. and a former partner in the adjoining MAL landfill, said he would seek a grand jury investigation into the operations of the MAL firm.

Jack Clifford, county zoning official, reported that an application for a special use permit filed last Jan. 6 is no longer valid. The ordinance now would be required to file a new application for a special use permit through his office and obtain the approval of the county board to reopen the landfill, Clifford added.

Metcalf Heads GC School Board; Davis, Stucke Officers

Arthur L. "Pete" Metcalf, assistant postmaster of Granite City, was elected Monday night as president of the Granite City community unit district board of education.

Also chosen by the board were Harold Davis as secretary and Donald Stucke as treasurer.

Metcalf and Davis began their new duties immediately. Stucke will become treasurer at the start of the fiscal year July 1.

Metcalf succeeds as president Dr. Eugene W. Walton, who retired from the board. Stucke was secretary and Metcalf treasurer prior to Monday's reorganization, and Metcalf's term as school treasurer will continue through June.

Macios, Crider Seated
The board seated incumbent Macios for a new three-year term and also seated Robert "Bob" Crider for a three-year term on the board.

A canvass of the April 11 election showed 1873 votes for Crider, a former board member, and 1833 for Macios. Pete Carich received 902, Philip Dressel 832 and Mrs. Mary Church, 467. Write-ins totaled two for Mel Freedman and one each for William Mehl and Robert Fanning.

Total turnout was 3121, led by 495 votes at Nidringhaus school, 412 at Numeoli, 402 at Frohardt and 368 at Washington.

At Metcalf's suggestion, the board designated George E. Moore Sr. as its legislative representative, succeeding Harold Davis. Secretary Davis will continue to represent the school district on the Quad-City cooperative special education board.

Policy Revisions

Davis, Stucke and Macios will continue to serve on the committee which is revising school board policies for board consideration.

Other than the three officers and the two seated for new board terms, the seven-member board includes Moore and Monroe Worthen. All of the votes on 1970-71 officers were unanimous.

Metcalf, 61, was appointed to the board in August 1967, won a one-year unexpired term in April 1968, and was elected to a three-year term in April 1969.

34-Year Postal Employee

He resides at 2712 Cavendish street with his wife, Alvenette, and they have four daughters and nine grandchildren. A Granite City postal employee for 34 years, he was superintendent of mails 17 years and has been assistant postmaster seven years.

A Granite City high school graduate and 58-year local resident, Metcalf is a past member of the Twilight Optimist club, Letters Carriers Local 1132 and Postal Clerks Local 182.

Davis, 35, of Mitchell, an electrician, is a past master of Masonic Lodge 877 and past patron of Eastern Star Chapter 650. Married and the father of three children, he was elected to the school board two years ago.

Stucke, 47, of 1613 Clark avenue, a tool designer, was appointed to the board at the same time as Metcalf, in August 1967. He then won a three-year term in April 1968. He is married and has three children.

Dr. Walton Honored
Metcalf presented Dr. Walton with a certificate of recognition in appreciation for his six years as a board member and his service as president.

The new president said he regretted Dr. Walton's retirement from the board and commended him for the time he has devoted to the school district.

Metcalf welcomed Crider, saying, "I am sure you will help the board bring forth new ideas, ideas and positive action. He next welcomed back Macios, describing him as "a most able board member who always gives a good account of himself on all board matters."

Comments by President

Upon being seated as president, Metcalf said, "I would like to mention a few of the many items upon which I feel the board, administration, teachers and all persons concerned should continue to strive to bring to a satisfactory conclusion."

"We have a good board and good administration. It must be our undivided aim to have a better board and a better administration, if possible."

"The result can be a better school system, which the children, parents and taxpayers deserve and want. We should never ease up for one moment in our endeavor to accomplish this."

"We have had a vast improvement in our communications from the administration to the individual board members in the past few months, and we appreciate this and want it to continue," Metcalf said.

"A good board must be a well-informed board. I pledge to communicate to the individual board members that information which is important as soon as humanly possible, rather than waiting for the next board meeting.

Expand Principal Contacts

"I feel we definitely need better communication between our principals and the administration. In fairness to Supt. B. J. Davis and his staff, I must relate that he has a program under way which, I feel, will take care of this."

"It will make for a better relationship between labor and management if we have closer communicative contacts with teachers, custodians, etc., whenever it is feasible and practical, particularly on items of special interest."

"I believe we must continue our surveys, studies and research in regard to the extended school year and work toward a final conclusion, to whether we should or should not extend the school year, based only on the absolute facts."

"I do not believe we should let the issue lie dormant and come to no conclusion."

Expand Special Education

"On special education, we know and feel this is a program of the utmost importance and urgency. We also know we are moving in the right direction on this program, just as swiftly as the statutes allow and the purse strings are loosened."

"I feel that great strides have been made, particularly in the past six months, and we must and will continue to move ahead as fast as we can."

"Harold Davis and I attended a session on education of the handicapped at the recent national convention. It was an informative class, the speakers were exceptional, and both of us left the session with a much better understanding of some of our most urgent needs."

"Education of the disadvantaged is another program that we must stay abreast of, and, in essence, it may be asking to the special education program," Metcalf commented.

Vocational Classes

"From information I have, it appears that some phases of vocational training may need some study and possible updating in order for certain apprentices of our to be readily able to accept employment made available to them."

"This action we will leave to the professional people of our system, as we should. However, we will be talking to these administrators for the information necessary for the improvement of our program, if it can be improved. We will request their recommendations for any action they deem necessary to accomplish the desired result."

"I also attended a session on sex education. This program requires all of us to take a long look at it. I am not saying that I oppose it. I feel we must make an objective approach, and I know we are doing just that under the direction of Curriculum Coordinator Owen Humphrey."

"He has been working on this program with a very diligent approach. It is a program that possibly citizen committees composed of parents may be able to aid, as it was brought out at the convention."

"I suggest we change the name to human development; every time you talk about sex education, it is like waving a red flag in front of the bull."

"I have been talking to Supt. Davis about this. He has been thinking along those lines, and I am sure he will suggest an appropriate title for our proposed program."

GCBS Concert Band to Play At Bach Festival on Friday

At the invitation of the Bach Society of Greater St. Louis, the Granite City high school concert band, under the direction of Louis E. Meek, will perform Friday evening at the 30th annual Bach Festival presentation at Powell Symphony Hall, St. Louis.

Dr. William Heyne, founder and musical director of the Bach Festival Chorus and Orchestra, will conduct the 30th anniversary concert consisting of three of Bach's greatest works for the Easter season.

The widely-known director personally invited the local band students to perform, prior to the start of the formal concert, for a second time. After hearing musicians from Granite City, he extended the initial invitation.

Granite City band members will present a concert of Chorales composed by Johann Sebastian Bach in the foyer of Powell Hall, starting at 8 p.m. Friday. The chorales, multi-voiced tunes, were written originally in the 17th century for presentation in the church.

Starting at 8:30 p.m. Friday, St. Louis Bach Society Chorus and Orchestra will present Episodes from St. Matthew Passion, Cantata No. 4; Christ Lay in the Bonds of Death and the Ascension Oratorio.

Soloists will include Holly Day, soprano, Mary Burdette, contralto, Robert Johnson, tenor and Roger Havrenek, bass. Local students selected to perform are Jody Blackard, Bonnie Byrnes, Terry Hulst, Robert Joyce, Kathy Soechting, Kathy Stajduhar, Janet Stopkotte, Billie Strauser, and Helen Tolbert.

Flutes: Bruce Hawkins, David Vance and Michael Vorse, baritone.

Clenda Bevan, Jack Jenkins, Beth Ledbetter and Carla Mathis, oboes; Phil Edwards, Keith Lee and Wallace Todd, trombones; Christina Adams, Stephen Hileman, Connie Koster and Linda Pilcher, bass clarinet; Linda Gasparovic and Beverly Kay McCre, contra bass clarinet.

Stephen Dornaghi, James Daigneroff, Debbie Seibold and James Stavelly, alto saxophones; Bradley Boone, Dennis P. Meyer, Kenneth Reuter, Kevin Nicol, John Severino, Donald Smith and Gregory Thebeau, cornets; Diane Bradford and Karen Kibort, tympani.

Jeff Ennis, Robert Epping, Janet Geiger, Taira Hogan, Patricia Hunsinger, Catherine Lee, Kathie Lewis, Jayne Matras, Stephanie Miller, Eric Mills, Linda Moore, Connie Slinger, Patricia Stajduhar and Patricia Tester, clarinets.

Census House Calls Continuing in Area

District Manager Ray B. O'Neill reports good progress in this area in the follow-up phase of the 1970 Census of Population and Housing.

Census takers are visiting homes from which no questionnaires were mailed back, as well as those from which questionnaires were returned incompletely filled out.

The Madison-St. Clair counties manager asks householders to welcome the census takers when they call, and give them full cooperation in getting the required information.

Most of the census takers are women. Each wears a red, white and blue identification badge which is her official credential.

It bears her signature, and certifies that she is authorized to perform the duties of a census enumerator and has sworn to keep confidential all census information given her.

The law requires that the applications be received in this office on or before that date, he pointed out.

Most trucks and other second division vehicles are now licensed for the fiscal year July 1 through June 30, instead of the calendar year, which applies to passenger cars.

Application blanks are available at notaries public, currency exchanges, dealers and similar outlets.

Official Appeal Made by City On Army Depot

Granite City council members voted Monday night to submit an official request to Donald F. Bradford at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C., for a visit by federal officials to Granite City to discuss the forthcoming order to close the Army Depot.

The action was taken at the suggestion of Congressman Melvin Price, who informed the city of the report by the Army Materiel Command re-emphasizing the decision to shut down the Granite City Army Depot by July 1971.

The request is to be forwarded to Donald F. Bradford of the Department of Defense, Office of Economic Adjustment. However, the city earlier had forwarded resolutions for reconsideration to President Nixon, Congressman Price, U.S. Senators Smith and Percy, Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird and Gov. Ogilvie. Public hearings in Granite City also were requested.

Commenting on the report which stated the depot here was completely surrounded by the civilian community and would have no way to expand if needed, Al Derman, N. N. S. said, "That's a lot of bunk. All we need is federal government has to do is say 'we need it,' and they'll take it."

Local unions and veterans groups also have sent requests to Washington demanding that public hearings on the closing be conducted here with top federal officials present.

The Operating Engineers Union, which represents most of the depot workers, has pointed out the high cost of operating the depot here results from an over-abundance of supervisory personnel. The depot, it also has been stressed, employs a large number of disabled war veterans.

Utilities Drop Merger To Retain Gas Service

Wendell J. Kelley, president of Illinois Power Co., and Kenneth E. Bowen, president of Central Illinois Public Service Co., announced Tuesday that the matter of corporate affiliation of the two companies, which has been under consideration, has been terminated.

A proposal for affiliation of Illinois Power, headquartered in Decatur, and Central Illinois, headquartered in Springfield, was first advanced in March 1968. It received the approval of the Illinois Commerce Commission.

Earlier this year, the plan received the approval of the Securities and Exchange Commission subject, however, to a provision that both companies divest their gas properties. Illinois Power in February May 1 at the Urbana campus.

The financial outlook of the Venice school district still remains bleak. Board Attorney Lawrence T. Hartman said, he recommended that the district authorize sale of three $20,000 tax anticipation warrants to cover expenditures through mid-May.

On-Job Training for Venice Center Business Students

A pilot program through which qualified students in advanced accounting, office machines and typing courses at the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center will gain practical experience was approved by the Venice board of education Monday evening.

Permission for on-the-job training of Venice-Lincoln students was granted by the board at the request of Don Daviny, business education instructor at the adult vocational center.

Under the supervision of Daviny, students will work at St. Mark's Credit Union each Tuesday and Thursday from 11:45 a.m. until 2:45 p.m. through May 22.

On-the-job training will be coordinated with regular classroom studies on the remaining weekdays, with Miss Melba Eason of the center's business education staff instructing participating students during the periods.

Noting that additional work experience, other than academic and classroom study, is essential to increase opportunity in finding employment after graduation, Daviny said students taking part in the pilot program will tackle all phases of office duties during assignments at the credit union.

Diverse Work Experience Tasks such as sorting mail, filing, telephone work, writing checks, letter typing and bill payment will be augmented with reconciling bank statements, tax payments, posting ledgers, financial statements, interest calculations, general office procedures and "customer care."

Four students assigned initially to the credit union program were Judy Kilmer, Vicki Johnson, Ardis Richardson and Irene Wilson.

In other action, the school board authorized Duane Rankin, Venice-Lincoln administrator, to work with Lewis Sabin, Venice high school principal, to establish a program at the adult training center, enabling qualified students to obtain high school credits.

Rankin said several students want to secure a high school diploma and have expressed concern that a General Education Development certificate is not as significant as a diploma when seeking employment.

Permission was given for the New Salem Baptist Church to hold its annual fund-raising banquet May 29 at the Venice-Lincoln gymnasium and for student teachers from Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus to work in conjunction with Venice teaching personnel.

Honors Day Recognition Assistant Supr. Robert N. Vickers announced that Richard A. Patterson, 1018 Second St., Venice, a 1964 graduate of Venice high school, will be among University of Illinois graduates recognized for excellence in Honors Day ceremonies May 1 at the Urbana campus.

The financial outlook of the Venice school district still remains bleak. Board Attorney Lawrence T. Hartman said, he recommended that the district authorize sale of three $20,000 tax anticipation warrants to cover expenditures through mid-May.

Transfers from district funds included $57,787 from the Venice-Lincoln fund to the working cash fund and $30,000 from working cash back to the vocational school account.

To effect immediate repairs on roof sections at the Venice grade and high school buildings, where leakage has become a serious problem, a contract was awarded to Claude Lipe Roofing Co. of Belleville on a bid of $360.

Leaks have developed at various points in the school building, including shop areas, causing damage to tile floors and plaster walls, the board was told.

Two other bids, obtained by the board from Art Biebel Roofing Co. of East St. Louis and Rogers Roofing Co., failed to take in a sufficient area for repair work, it was reported.

Removal of present roofing, repairs, insulation and re-roofing with asphalt were included in the project. The Lipe bid, showed 84 square feet of insulation and 20 square feet of roofing removal and repair above the Biebel bid of $2665, the board was told.

Ronald R. Gauschietz, student council adviser, was given authority to attend the state convention of the Illinois Association of Student Councils April 22-25 in Chicago. The Venice teacher is an officer of the state organization.

Permission also was granted to student council members to proceed with plans to erect a large sign, bearing the name of the high school. Funds set aside for the project will be supplemented with $200 contributed by the 1969 student council.

MORE ABOUT Kozielek
Madison election in which a mayor will be chosen. The election will be held July 28.

Three Get Petitions
The filing period for majority candidates opened Monday. While no one has filed petitions, City Comptroller E. J. Miller at the city clerk's office said blanks had been obtained by Sasyk Monday, and by Leo Abel, 1542 Seventh street, former operator of the Mal landfill and more recently an agent for the Chouteau Island Landfill Corp., which is attempting to reopen a landfill.
Abel picked up petitions Tuesday, as did Wasyk "V. K. Happy" Kozioruk, 1522 Seventh street.

Should Kozielek enter the campaign, it would mean a division of political forces both within the leadership of the organization and in its general membership of city employees, precinct committeemen and others.
The filing period will remain open at the city clerk's office through May 25, with a June 1 deadline for withdrawals.

Park Board Ups Non-Resident Swim Pool Fee

An increase in non-resident fees for use of the Wilson Park swimming pool this summer and increases in the cost of some items at park concession stands were approved by the Granite City park board at a meeting last night.

The board voted to raise non-resident swimming pool fees to $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children. The fees have been $1 and 60 cents. The present fee for residents of the park district, 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for children, will remain unchanged. Persons using the swimming pool are required to present identification cards available at the Wilson Park ice rink.
An increase of five cents on the cost of hot dogs, hamburgers and large bottles of soda at park concession stands was approved. Board members said the increase is necessary to cover rises in wholesale costs of the items. Under the new prices hot dogs will cost 25 cents, hamburgers 35 cents and large sodas 25 cents.

The board also began work last night on its 1970-71 appropriation bill and took under study recommendations by Park Supt. Harold Brown for salary increases for park employees in a new salary schedule of graduated pay raises over a five-year period.
The board reported work on the Wilson Park ice rink roof, which was damaged by lightning a year ago. Lightning rods are to be installed on the structure after the repairs are completed.

MORE ABOUT Organize

understood the steel mill controlled the council. Alderman Whitmer was in the audience and answered that only three of the aldermen work at the mill and are not governed in their actions by the company.
Blensieck pointed out, "As a heavy industry community, we have had an air pollution problem for many years. At one time, we considered it a price of growth and progress, but there are many doubts now that this is a necessary or a cheap price."

Pollution Costs
"In a heavy industrial area such as ours, it is estimated that the costs of excessive air pollution are more than $200 annually to each family. This adds up to $2,000,000 a year for the whole city, and this is a substantial sum."

He added that a recent planning report "points out pollution as a definite deterrent to growth, and this has been borne out by the past few years' figures. It is apparent that our local merchants may be losing potential customers to other cities."

The local clean air board chairman said the board suffered reverses, but has progressed and now needs a full-time staff to enter into the field of enforcement.

"In the past four years our local effort has been confined to one half-day per week. The board at one time was ahead of the state, but some residents say we have been too slow. Perhaps the community has been getting just the kind of program it has demanded, and it has not demanded very much, at least not in a way that has developed into financial support of an effective control program."

lagoons in Horseshoe Lake and knew in advance the lake was to be developed as a state park, Cairns replied that tests over the past six years show the water in the lake is better than the lake water and even an improvement over when it was taken from the Mississippi River.

Panelist Dr. Zaki Sheikh, a local thoracic surgeon, said he has noted lung ailments appear to be four times higher among Granite Cityans and that air pollution causes lung ailments and can cause premature death. "You can't expect industry to spend millions to save our lives. We need to pass laws and exercise controls."

Hearing Next Month
Anton Telford, sanitary engineer for the Illinois Air Pollution Control board with offices in Collinsville, said the state has strengthened its control laws and will take further steps. "A hearing will be held in this area next month on new rules and regulations for 1972." He added that monitoring equipment here shows an improvement of 13% to 20% in the reduction of particulate matter in the air.

Telford said his staff is interested in hearing local complaints and can be reached by telephoning 345-0088.
In the question and answer period conducted by the moderator, Bob Hardy, the panel was asked if industry should be shut down in 30 days if it makes no effort to clean its air. Blensieck replied that he doubted if courts would uphold such action. Cairns said industry should make an effort and promote new technology to clean the air.

A tax on pollution was suggested from the audience as a preventive measure. Cairns said it would become merely a license to pollute.
Prof. Hoelscher added that such a tax would be hard to measure. He added that industry should be shut down if it refused to take preventive steps. "And do it in three months rather than 1 1/2 years."

A high school student who toured Granite City Steel earlier Tuesday during an Earth Day Tech-In sponsored by the industry asked Cairns why a guard stopped him from taking a picture, saying to wait and get one "where it looks better."

Cairns said he could not understand that since nearly everyone on the tour had a camera and took pictures everywhere.

The symposium was presided over by David Hordesky, president of GASP, and opened with a filmstrip presentation by Deby Baker.

Fire Call to School
Venice firemen were called to the Venice high school chemistry laboratory about 2:40 p.m. yesterday when a can of phosphorus began smoldering. Firemen said the supply of phosphorus had dried out and in such condition can ignite by spontaneous combustion. Firemen threw the chemical in a barrel and let it burn itself out, they said. There was no fire damage.

The body was discovered by Granite City police who went to Kelton's home at the request of Kelton's former wife, Lois Kelton, Caseyville, who said officers to go with her to the Cleveland boulevard address because, she told police, Kelton had told her he was going to kill himself.

Long Range Planning Urged Here by Roos

The long range planning committee of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce is in an ideal position to conduct advance planning for population increases in Madison County for the next 20 years, it was told yesterday by St. Louis county Supervisor Lawrence Roos.

In a general discussion at the Sunset Hills Country club, Roos compared the population of Madison county now with that of St. Louis county in 1940.

He said long range planning "is a must" in all phases of socio-economic life in the county, and added that it is essential to have an area or county-wide government to handle certain problems, especially in highway development, crime prevention, health and land use. Roos was introduced by Leo Kosen, committee chairman.

Twenty-five of the 29 committee members attending the luncheon meeting, including:

Sister Mary Thomas, Eugene Sternberg, SIU-SW Chancellor John Lee, Mayor Ray Koza, B. J. Davis, Carl Mathias, Carl Rant, Henry Karandjich, Rev. Wendell Garrison, Chester Baker, W. F. Autos Collide
Two cars were damaged in a collision in the 1500 block of Niedringhaus avenue about 9:40 p.m. Police said the cars, driven by Mark Molski, 1837 Grand avenue, and Brenda Hawkins, 3601 Kirkpatrick Homes, were both westbound on Niedringhaus and collided as the Hawkins car made a right turn.

CERTIFICATE OF ACHIEVEMENT awarded to Granite City Police Officer Richard Woods for his action in apprehending armed bandits in a February holdup at Cionko's market. It is presented by Donald Adams, chairman of the law and order committee of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce.

Officer Woods Honored For Action in Robbery

Patrolman Richard Woods has been presented a certificate of merit by the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce for his achievements in apprehending two armed bandits following a $535 holdup at Cionko's market last Feb. 13.

The presentation was made by Donald Adams, chairman of the chamber's law and order committee.

Patrolman Woods had initiated a 10-mile chase which resulted in a lasting gun battle, ending on Route 203 (Old Alton road) near the Hartford canal. Taken into custody were Charles W. Hatfield, 40, of Alton, and Terry A. Giffin, 30, of Cottage Hills. A third man escaped in the woods. The two men were charged with armed robbery and attempted murder. The cases are pending in circuit court.

GC Buys Materials for Summer Street Repairs

Low bids for summer maintenance of streets materials to total $47,855, and contracts with several supply firms were approved Monday night by Granite City council members.

Major supplier will be Midwest Black Top Roads, Inc., Collinsville — 64,000 gallons of liquid asphalt at 17 cents a gallon, 8900 gallons of road oil at 15 cents a gallon, 5500 gallons of liquid asphalt at 17 cents a gallon, 300 gallons of another type liquid asphalt at 16.5 cents a gallon; 3425 tons of seal coat aggregate at $5.54 a ton, 400 tons of coarse aggregate at $1.75 a ton.

McClair Asphalt Co., Collinsville, was awarded the contract for 650 tons of bituminous patch material at $8.50 a ton; and Witco Chemical Co. of Hammond, Ind., was awarded the contract for six tons of crack filler at $97 a ton.

The contract for 400 tons of salt was awarded to Hardy Salt Co., St. Louis, on its low bid of $20.20 a ton.

Alley Vacated
An ordinance was adopted to vacate a 200-foot section of the 2100 block alley between Edison avenue and State street and to dedicate the alley to St. Joseph Catholic Church.

The alley bisects church property, including the playground for St. Joseph school. In its place, the church is to dedicate to the city a 15-foot alley connecting with State street adjacent to the church building.

The new alleyway is to be paved by the church. City Engineer Kenneth Kleberger was instructed to speed up the improvements to the alley at locations where the roadway has been cut for sewer break repairs. Alderman Robertson on March 26, at Peoria on April 2, at Chicago on April 7 and at Carbondale Tuesday. Comments received from witnesses at the hearings will be studied by the board before the standards are finally approved.

Air quality standards are amenable air quality goals established for the purposes of protecting public health and welfare, Klassen said. The levels of air quality designated by the standards are designed to protect against injury to human, plant or animal life.

He said the standards also have been designed for use as a basis for development of the implementation plans by state and local agencies for the abatement and control of pollution emissions from existing sources, including development of air contaminant emission limitations and the setting of long and short-range objectives for reduction of air contaminants.

Moderate Gain in Employment Is Offset by Increase in Applicants

(Bureau of Labor Statistics)

Unemployment continued to increase in March, as a substantial rise in the civilian labor force exceeded a moderate gain in employment.

The over-the-month increase in unemployment was concentrated among adults seeking fulltime jobs, while the increase in employment occurred among part-time workers. The overall jobless rate rose from 4.2% in February to 4.4%.

Non-farm payroll employment, seasonally adjusted, remained substantially unchanged at its high February level.

In manufacturing, employment continued to edge downward, but the factory work-week recovered from the sharp drop in February.

The number of unemployed persons totaled 3.7 million in March. Unemployment generally falls sharply between February and March; March, however, there was little change and, after seasonal adjustment, unemployment was up by 230,000.

Virtually all the increase occurred among adult fulltime workers, mostly women.

Compared with March 1969, when joblessness was near its post-Korean war low, unemployment has risen by one million. About three-fifths of the overall increase was among persons who lost their last job.

The March increase in the overall jobless rate marked the third consecutive month in which the rate has risen. Since December, the rate has increased by nearly a full percentage point to a 4 1/2-year high.

Unemployment among adult women moved up from 4.1% in February to 4.5% over the month, due to increased joblessness among women aged 25 years and over. Their rate was at its highest level in 2 1/2 years and has risen one percentage point since late 1969.

For all adult men, the March unemployment rate of 2.9% was little changed from February.

The rate for married men, however, continued to rise, advancing from 2.6% to 2.7%. Both of these rates had increased sharply since late 1969.

The jobless rate for teenagers, at 13.9%, remained at the January and February level. Teenage joblessness in the past few months has been slightly above the rates that prevailed throughout most of 1969.

Nearly all of the March increase in unemployment occurred among fulltime jobseekers. The jobless rate for this group rose from 3.7% to 4.0% over the month. For parttime workers, the unemployment rate, at 7.1%, showed no significant change over the month.

Since the latter part of 1969, the unemployment rate for seekers of fulltime jobs has risen much more sharply than that for parttime workers.

The jobless rate for white-collar workers rose from 2.3% to 2.7% in March, due primarily to increased joblessness among professional, technical and clerical workers.

The unemployment rate for professional and technical workers, at 2.3%, has nearly doubled since late 1969, partly reflecting employment cutbacks in aerospace and defense-related industries.

The rate for blue-collar workers, which began to rise in the early fall of 1969, was essentially unchanged in March at 5.2%, but was at its highest level since September 1969.

Jobless rates in manufacturing (4.8%) and construction (6.1%) were unchanged over the month, after rising sharply in February. Both rates are up substantially compared to late 1969.

The rate for workers covered by state unemployment insurance programs was unchanged at 2.7% in March. This was significantly above the 2.1% rate of a year ago.

The number of persons unemployed for 15 weeks or longer rose to 345,000 in March, the highest level in nearly 10 years. As a proportion of the civilian labor force, persons unemployed 15 weeks or longer edged up to 0.7%.

The percent of labor force time lost by the unemployed and by persons leaving the working part time because of economic factors has increased from 3.6% in December to 4.6%. Labor force time lost is a measure of man-hours lost as a percent of potentially available labor force man-hours.

The civilian labor force rose by 230,000, seasonally adjusted, to 82.8 million in March. Labor force gains amounted to 300,000 in the first quarter of 1970, one of the largest quarterly increases in the post-Korean war period.

Total employment increased by 290,000 in March to 79.1 million, seasonally adjusted. The entire increase occurred among part-time workers. Between the two most recent quarters, employment advanced by slightly over 400,000.

A substantial increase in the civilian labor force more than offset this gain in employment, and, as a consequence, unemployment in the first quarter of 1970 was up by nearly 300,000 over the fourth quarter of 1969.

Non-agricultural payroll employment was 70.3 million in March. After allowance for seasonality, it was virtually unchanged over the month.

A large employment gain in government and small increases in several other industries were counterbalanced by declines in trade and manufacturing. An increase of 90,000 in government employment occurred in the first quarter, reflecting the hiring of temporary workers for the 1970 Census.

Other employment gains were posted in transportation and public utilities, services, contract-construction and finance, insurance and real estate. A 70,000 decline was attributable to less-than-usual hiring for the Easter season.

Manufacturing employment declined by 55,000 in March, despite a pickup in production in the auto industry after temporary cutbacks in February. The employment gain in transportation equipment (40,000) was offset by small but widespread declines in the other manufacturing industries.

Employment declines of 10,000-15,000 took place in the stone, clay and glass, primary metals, electrical equipment, food, textiles and apparel industries.

The workweek for all rank-and-file workers on private nonfarm payrolls remained unchanged in March at 37.4 hours, seasonally adjusted, marking the third consecutive month at this level. Average hours worked in the first quarter were at their lowest level since quarterly data became available in 1967.

In manufacturing, the workweek moved up 0.3 hours to 40.2 hours after dropping sharply in February. Part of this increase reflected the resumption of normal work schedules in the electrical equipment industry, where workers returning from strikes had worked only a portion of the survey week in February.

Despite this gain, the factory workweek remained low compared to most of 1969. In the fourth quarter of 1969 and the first quarter of 1970, factory workers averaged 40.1 and 40.7 hours, respectively, in the third and second quarters.

Factory overtime declined for the third straight month, reflecting declines in both the defense and nondurable goods sectors.

At 31 hours in March, seasonally adjusted, overtime hours were at their lowest level since July 1964, with the exception of April 1969 when hours were affected by unusual non-economic conditions. Since the 1969 high reached in January, factory overtime has dropped by 0.7 hour.

Average hourly earnings for all production and nonsupervisory workers on private payrolls rose one cent in March to $3.16. Compared with a year ago, average hourly earnings were up to 19 cents, or 6.4%.

Average weekly earnings increased 68 cents over the month to $145.50. Factory workers' earnings increased by $5.88, or 5.3%.

The percent of the year ending in February 1970, average weekly earnings rose by 6.1%. After adjustment for consumer price changes, earnings were up 0.2%.

Prospect for Constructive Change in Madison With Endorsement of 'Moderate'

Other candidates may enter the contest, but Mike Sasyk ranks as the favorite at this point, following a request for mayor by the executive board of the Madison City Organization.

With his opponent following a "get tough" policy too soon—before consolidating his base of support—Sasyk was able to assemble majority backing by welding together two groups—the nucleus closest to the late Mayor Stephen Maers and a faction which had broken away from the main political organization in the mid 1960s.

Although the emergence of Sasyk as the principal candidate reflects sentiment against a sharp change in Madison policies, no two individuals are exactly alike and there is every prospect of at least a moderate shift in emphasis in a number of fields.

There is general confidence in his capacity to serve effectively. The degree of public support which will develop is likely to depend directly on the extent of idealism and objectivity injected into the city's political, civic and governmental climate.

Issues and potential issues which come to mind include the too-tight city boundary line; the quantity and quality of available residences; industrial development; hiring, purchasing and business practices; the pervasive influence of politics in so many phases of life within the municipality and its effect on individual freedom and private enterprise; conditions associated with around-the-clock tavern operations; the future of the city's Chain of Rocks Bridge; candor in the disclosure of governmental actions and policies; and the potential for economy and fuller services through eliminating or merging certain taxing agencies.

The eight decades of Madison history have resulted in many problems of an ancient and true in any community, a few which could be improved. With a positive, selfless and innovative approach, Madisonians can progress to a new level of growth and achievement during the 1970s if they rise to the opportunities which await them.

Enough Questions Remain to Justify Hearing on the Army Depot Shutdown

An Army Materiel Command report has hit the Granite City Army Depot where it really hurts—efficiency. The local military base's best

Home Rule Possible Without Curbing State Power, Regional Cooperation

By ROBERT E. MERRIAM, Co-Chairman Illinois Commission on Urban Area Government

Three "home rule" proposals have been submitted to the Illinois Constitutional Convention—known as the Netsch, Ziegler and Woods proposals.

This commission, after a review by its staff, decided to formulate a proposal combining the strong points of all three plans. For this purpose, we created a six-man ad hoc committee which included commission members, and was involved in drafting, or otherwise known as strong advocates of, one or the other of the three proposals before the Convention.

Members were Wayne Anderson, Evanston city manager; State Sen. Jack Knuefer of Elmhurst; Raymond Simon, former corporation counsel of the city of Chicago; M. Siegel, corporation counsel of the city of Evanston; and J. Heighe and Schauberg; Allen Schwartz, chairman, School Law Council, Illinois State Bar Association.

Our executive committee agreed that if this committee proposed a proposal by unanimous vote or, failing that, if the proposal was circulated to the membership at large and received a majority endorsement, the chairman was authorized to present it to the Convention as a formal recommendation of the commission.

This committee did draft a home rule proposal including provisions of the three proposals before the Convention. The proposal was unanimously adopted by the committee, although originally there was an objection which was later changed to affirmative.

This proposal has been circulated to our entire membership for reaction. So far, the response, from about one-third of our 68 members, is over-hope of avoiding the scheduled shutdown was to show that it would be more economical for the State to operate here than to move the equipment and the supply stockpiles elsewhere.

There is no way in which doubt about the wisdom of closing the Depot can be fully resolved without the requested public hearing. Each of the five factors cited in the decision disclosed by the Press-Record Monday, are subject to challenge:

1. "Most distant from ports." Which ports—ocean or river? The local depot is far from the Atlantic and Pacific, but is situated at an excellent Mississippi River harbor. Increasing reliance on air shipments seems to render this point less important. And it would be foolhardy to "put all our eggs in one basket"; coastal bases are much more vulnerable than middle America to an enemy nation.

2. "Second highest labor costs among the depots considered for possible closing." Was there adequate weighting for differing regional wage patterns? How wisely did the Army decide the appropriate number of administrators, supervisors and technicians for each repair, processing and storage assignment?

3. "Lowest productivity." Is this a reflection on the staff and the local community, or on managerial policies as practiced by Washingtonians rather than Quad-Cityans?

4. "Total facility encroachment." Was expansion beyond the civilian community's encirclement really under consideration, or was this thrown in to pad the anti-Depot side of the case? There are many wide-open spaces on the 977-acre site, offering a lot of room to expand, including the golf course.

5. "Like items stored in 15 other storage depots." A not very impressive argument, considering the size and scope of Defense Department missions. How much of a saving can it be to walk away from an investment which includes 2,225,000 square feet of space under roof, 29 miles of railroad track and an available pool of skilled specialists, some of whom will not choose to transfer to another depot?

These responses are not presented as rebuttals. Laymen cannot fully evaluate such statements as "low productivity" on the basis of the limited information they have.

But it is clear that some of the aspects of the decision may represent distortion of fact or misleading interpretations of fact—or they may not.

We simply don't know, and doubt that many people outside a few Pentagon insiders do know.

Assuming for discussion that serious deficiencies exist, whose fault are they and how correctable are they? And to what extent were political-geographical considerations involved in deciding where to whittle spending?

The number of unanswered questions still is more than ample to justify a hearing on the closing order.

Disappointing Venice School Decision

The decision by the Venice school board to raise monthly pay from $125 to $150 for the secretary and from $100 to $150 for the treasurer is disappointing to taxpayers. Both positions already were overpaid.

In contrast, the larger Granite City school district pays $30 a month to the secretary and nothing to the treasurer, while local residents pay the treasurer a non-salaried fee if he is also a school board member, an option open to the Venice schools.

Intuition is what enables a woman to contradict her husband before he says anything.

Propose Big Hikes in Illinois Road, Education, Public Aid Spending

(Springfield Scene)

The proposed 1970-71 Illinois state fiscal plan calls for increased spending in road, education and public aid programs. The plan also calls for a 30% increase over estimated current expenditures.

The budget includes: Education—Up 18.5% or $235 million. More than $15 billion is to be spent from the General Revenue and Common School funds; 41% of the total $773 million General Fund increase is for education.

For higher education, the proposed increase of $66,300,000 or 18.5% would average spending to more than twice the 1967 level.

For elementary and secondary schools, the foundation level for each pupil in average daily attendance would go from $200 to $250; minimum local tax rates to be eligible for equalization aid would rise from 1.5% to 2.5%.

Conservation—Up 25% or $45 million. Also sought are $40 million in authorization to buy land for more state parks.

General services—Up 127.3% or $7 million, plus $20 million in revenue from funds other than the General Fund. Start on pollution control at state institutions. First phase of rehabilitation of the Executive Mansion.

Local government—Down 63.7% or $5,000,000, but up by $30 million in other funds. $4 million goes to increased distribution of income tax revenues to local governments.

Revenue department—Up 78.4% or $38 million, mainly for income tax refund. $750 million bond issue is proposed.

Highways—No General Fund money but $68 million in increased spending, all from motor fuel tax funds.

Americans With Drugs Overseas Risk Severe Penalties If Caught

(U. S. Department of State)

Could you tell me the consequences of an American citizen being arrested for possession of narcotic drugs while traveling abroad?

Dear D. Q.: The Department of State has taken action to bring to the attention of Americans traveling abroad and particularly of young Americans, the serious consequences which may result from their arrest by foreign governments on charges of possessing, trafficking in, or smuggling illegal drugs.

Nothing is more tragic in view of the marked increase in arrest reports by U. S. consular offices.

There were 142 Americans under detention on drug charges in 20 foreign countries by February 1969, but by February 1970 the total had risen to 404.

This is the largest number of Americans held for narcotics violations in the three years since records have been kept by the Department of State.

Young Americans (under 30) who are now traveling widely and in larger numbers than ever before, represent the greatest number of U. S. nationals arrested abroad for narcotics violations.

But the current fragmentation of the area of concern is due to weak city and county government, with the resultant growth of special districts.

Home rule would strengthen city and county government and encourage consolidation of local units and regional cooperative efforts.

Another objection heard is that home rule might lead to a diversity of local regulations, taxes and licensing provisions.

Our response is twofold: One, it has yet to be demonstrated in any state in the union that a state cannot establish uniform standards by general law, even in home rule cities.

Two, we contend that uniformity, while often desirable in the freedom of commerce, personal rights, freedom of travel and residence, access to places of employment and access to public facilities.

The assertion is often made that many of our smaller communities lack adequate resources to qualify for home rule.

Our response to that is that the lack of resources is not materially affected by home rule or lack of home rule. This is an issue of municipal viability, and it relates more to the question of incorporation than to home rule.

It should be dealt with in its own right.

The argument is heard that in short-handed communities existing units of local government at a time when urban growth may require enlargement of a regional office.

Legal Action Ordered to Solve GC Drainage Problem

Both the legal and engineering departments of the city were ordered into action Monday night by Granite City council members to eliminate a drainage problem that caused flooding of the Cloverview area over the rainy weekend.

Daves pointed out the flooding condition involves about 200 homes in the Cloverview area. It was noted that luckily, the rains did not cause Dobby slough to overflow. The levee district has been pumping the slough to keep the level down.

Also, the levee district is planning a $20,000 to $30,000 project to provide drainage relief by installing a line to drain the Cloverview area south of Pontoon road and to the Nameoki ditch to the east.

Davinroy Again Venice School Board President

Leo Davinroy was re-elected president of the Venice board of education Monday evening at the annual reorganization meeting.

Prior to the session, board members canvassed returns from the April 11 school election which resulted in incumbents Richard H. Bailey and Fred Durrer Jr., who ran unopposed, being returned to the board for three-year terms.

Both were formally seated at Monday's meeting. The board named as its secretary Durrer, who succeeds Fred W. Rumpf. Before relinquishing the secretarial job, Rumpf recommended increases in monthly pay for the board secretary and board treasurer.

Hike Pay of Officers
Board members approved a $25 monthly increase in pay for the secretary and a $50 per month raise to the board treasurer. Monthly salaries for both positions were set at $150.

John O. Pier, Venice superintendent of schools for the past 15 years, and Robert N. Vick, assistant superintendent since 1968, were hired for the same positions in the 1970-71 school year.

23rd Year on Board
Currently starting his 23rd year of service on the Venice board of education, Davinroy served 17 years on the school board before retiring for one year in 1964. He was re-elected in 1965 and again in 1968.

Davinroy, 51, resides at 1229 Klein street, Venice. He is married and has two sons and three daughters. He is employed as an instructor and coordinator with the Department of Labor and Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission special on-the-job training program for hard-core unemployed.

An Army veteran of world war II, Davinroy is a member of the Venice Lions club, St. Mark's Holy Name Society, carpenter union, Venice Homecoming Association, Venice-Madison American Legion Post 307 and Venice Crippled Children's Organization.

The new board secretary lives at 601 Jefferson street, Venice. He is employed as an agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

Durrer, 41, is married and has five children. He is a member of St. Mark's Church, Council 1098 of Knights of Columbus, St. Mark's Holy Name Society, Venice Civic Organization, Venice Crippled Children's Organization and Venice-Madison American Legion Post 307.

Results of the April 11 board election disclosed 128 votes cast for Bailey at Precinct 1 (Venice grade school) and 65 votes at Precinct 2 (Eagle Park polling place). Durrer received 136 votes at Precinct 1 and 37 votes at Precinct 2.

Restoration of Fort Under Way by SIU

Phase One of the Fort Massac reconstruction project conducted by the Southern Illinois University Museum and the Illinois Department of Conservation has started at the fort site near Metropolis.

Basil Hedrick, acting Museum director and project director, said the first stage of the project, scheduled for completion Aug. 31, is supported by a $50,000 appropriation from the 1969 Illinois General Assembly.

Phase One provides for a comprehensive historical evaluation of past archaeological research at the site; analysis of the feasibility of reconstruction of the fort; and an indication of how reconstruction should be accomplished if feasible, Hedrick said.

Tax Deadline April 30 For Employers Report

Employers have an important tax deadline on April 30, according to Jay G. Philpott, district director of Internal Revenue for central and southern Illinois.

This is the last day for reporting and paying both Social Security and withheld income taxes for the quarter ended March 31, 1970.

Employers should report these taxes on the preaddressed Form 941 mailed them by IRS. They have until May 10 to file their returns if the entire quarterly tax liability has been deposited on time in a Federal Reserve or authorized commercial bank.

If the balance due with the return is more than $100, it should be deposited in an authorized commercial bank or a Federal Reserve bank, using Federal Tax Deposit Form 501. Lesser amounts can be sent to IRS with the return.

Further information can be obtained by writing to Forms, P.O. Box 1468, Springfield, Illinois 62765, for "Circular E—Employer's Tax Guide," Publication 15.

4 Local Servicemen Meet at Soc Trang

Just how small the world really is became very apparent recently when four young men from the Quad-Cities found themselves assigned to the same U. S. Army airfield, manned by only 750 military personnel and located in a remote section of the Mekong Delta in Vietnam.

One of the four, Air Force Sgt. George L. Wilkerson, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wilkerson, 4020 Park lane, has since returned home after spending more than 18 months on duty in Vietnam.

Sgt. Wilkerson brought with him the latest news of the other Granite Cityans and the accompanying photograph, which was taken three weeks ago.

Still at Soc Trang Army Airfield, located about 85 miles from Saigon in the Mekong Delta, are Chief Warrant Officer Kurt Weiser, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellen Douglas; and Army Pfc Robert Tindall, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tindall, 4110 Kirkpatrick Homes and husband of the former Miss Shirley Wadlow of Granite City.

Graduated Together
Sgt. Wilkerson, an air freight specialist, and CW 2 Weiser, a helicopter pilot, were both members of the 1966 graduating class at Granite City high school.

The unusual coincidence of four hometown servicemen from totally different units assigned to the same, small, isolated overseas base was further emphasized by the fact that Pfc Tindall, a supply clerk with the 121st Aviation Company, Assault Helicopter Squadron, and Sp/4 Douglas, a security policeman and former combat infantryman, were childhood friends.

The pair attended Venice elementary school together from the second grade through junior high school level. They also resided only three houses apart in Venice for many years, growing up with the same friends and sharing similar interests.

Pfc Tindall entered the Army on Aug. 12 and was assigned to the Assault Helicopter Squadron upon arrival in Vietnam on Feb. 10. He was graduated in January 1969 from Granite City high school.

2nd Tour in Vietnam
Sp/4 Douglas graduated from Venice high school in 1967 and joined the Army about two years ago. He has served the past 16 months in Vietnam, having completed a 12-month tour of duty with the First Infantry Division between December 1968 and December 1969.

The soldier spent Christmas at home with his father and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Robinson, 2724 West 20th street, after he volunteered to extend his service time in Vietnam an additional six months. He is now assigned as a security policeman with the First Aviation Brigade at the Soc Trang airfield.

Sp/4 Douglas, a 1967 Venice high school graduate, suffered a shrapnel wound to the forehead on Sept. 4, while a rifleman at Fire Support Base Thunder III.

In the same incident, he won his second Army Commendation Medal for heroism when he and a comrade advanced on a North Vietnamese emplacement and silenced the enemy's fire after an intense rocket-propelled grenade attack and

Three Special Use Permits Approved Here

Petitions for special use permits on three requests involving Nameoki and Chouteau townships have been approved by the Madison county board of supervisors on recommendation of the county zoning board of appeals. The petitioners were:

Mrs. Lula Wedmeier, owner, and Johnny D. Hull, occupant, to place a mobile home in an R-3 one-family residence district in Nameoki township for a period not to exceed three years.

Norman Jones, owner, and Ottilie Valencia Jr., purchaser, to erect a duplex in an R-4 single-family residence district in Nameoki township and that the time limit of commencing building be extended for a period not to exceed three years and that he be permitted to use a separate septic system for each unit.

Mrs. Robert Purdie, owner, to place a mobile home in an R-4 single-family residence district in Nameoki township for the duration of her lifetime.

Award Last April
The local serviceman earned his first award on April 20, 1969. While a forward observer with a mechanized squad on an ambush patrol west of An Loc, Sp/4 Douglas was placing mines when enemy movement was detected. The soldier detonated his mines and began throwing hand grenades, later directing artillery illumination over the entire area enabling his unit to rout the enemy. His third Commendation Medal was won in December for meritorious service.

Chief Warrant Officer Kurt Weiser is the second Venice son to serve as a helicopter pilot in Vietnam. His older brother, CW2 Reginald Weiser, returned from overseas combat in October 1968 and received his discharge from the Army Air Force last December.

Kurt was graduated in 1966 from Granite City high school, attended Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus for one year and was employed as an aircraft inspector at McDonnell-Douglas Corp. prior to enlisting in May 1968.

The helicopter pilot earned his wings at Fort Rucker, Ala., and arrived in Vietnam on Jan. 21. He is currently serving with the 121st Assault Helicopter Co. at Soc Trang.

Before returning home this month, Air Force Sgt. Wilkerson was serving with the 8th Aerial Port Squadron at Soc Trang. He had been stationed at the Mekong base 4½ months. The Air Force specialist was assigned to Vietnam on Aug.

A 1965 graduate of Granite City high school, the officer attended Southern Illinois University before entering the Army in November 1966. Lt. McBride and his wife, Patricia, reside in Savannah, Ga.

VA Home Loans Increase, Show Bright Future

The Veterans Administration reported today that housing starts under the VA program in February climbed to 58,000, the highest annual rate in the past 13 months.

The seasonally adjusted figure was seven per cent above January and 12½ above February a year ago.

Donald E. Johnson, administrator of veterans affairs, said nearly 12,000 applications for GI loans were received in February, almost 90% of them from post-Korean veterans.

He said that housing demands of this group contributed to a favorable outlook as was foreseen by loan guaranty officials in VA's budget request for fiscal year 1971.

In making that forecast, officials expressed the view that housing demands would increase. They also acknowledged that the full needs of younger Vietnam era and other post-Korean veterans probably would not be satisfied, even though VA loan activity would increase in fiscal years 1970 and 1971.

Johnson reported that requests for appraisals of newly built homes increased on a seasonally adjusted annual rate to 142,000 in February. This compares with 141,000 requests in January and 132,000 in February last year.

The seasonally adjusted annual rate for home loan applications was 166,000 in February, an increase of 4000 over January's annual rate.

Safety Guidelines Set for School Attire, Hair Codes

Health, safety and welfare factors were cited by the Granite City school board Monday night in adopting a resolution affecting school dress codes.

Supt. Bob J. Davis noted during the board meeting that the resolution is not a dress code. It outlines the reasons for a code and gives each school guidelines.

"As you know, this has been under consideration for a number of months. It is believed that this resolution sets reasonable guidelines and at the same time provides reasonable leeway."

The resolution relates that "the courts of Illinois and the federal courts have made various expressions concerning the indiscriminate adoption of school dress codes."

"It is the intent of this board of education to refrain from violating any of the constitutional rights of the students in this district."

Right to an Education
"But it is recognized that some policy must be adopted by this board to regulate the health, safety and welfare of the students attending the schools in this district—and to assure them their rights to an education free from disruption and disturbance of any kind."

"Be it resolved that the principals of the individual schools within the district shall, subject to the approval of the superintendent of school and board of education, adopt such rules and regulations concerning the dress and appearance of students as may be necessary to deter health problems, sanitation problems, or problems which might arise endangering the physical safety of any of the students within said school."

"Also, such regulations as may be deemed necessary or expedient to protect the students in said school in their right of a free education without disruption or disturbance from either outside influence or inside influence."

Disciplinary Action
"In the event a student shall willfully violate these regulations for the purpose of creating such disruption or disturbance, reasonable temporary disciplinary action may be taken thereon."

"The foregoing regulations shall include, but are not limited to, the reasonable designation of the length and cleanliness of a student's hair for the reason that:

"1. Some students are engaged in shop work wherein machinery is used, thereby giving rise to a danger not otherwise present."

"2. Other students are engaged in the preparation of ice or consumption of food, thereby giving rise to additional health problems."

"3. Other students may desire to violate these regulations merely for the purpose of violating, thereby becoming a disturbing and disruptive influence."

Hazardous Accessories
"They shall include limitations on clothing accessories, including boots, belt buckles, rings, knives, weapons or any other instrumentality that may be worn or carried, which may be used as an instrument to inflict injury or to disrupt or disturb other students in the course of their education."

"Be it further resolved that said regulations shall contain a provision as follows:

"In the event any parent or person in loco parentis shall insist that a student shall dress, act or conduct himself in a manner contrary to the regulation of said school, said parent or person in loco parentis may obtain from the office of the board of education a form demanding that said student dress, act or conduct himself in a manner contrary to said regulations and releasing Community Unit School District No. 9 from all claim, demand or liability which may arise to said student as a result of said non-conforming dress, conduct or action."

"Said form shall be signed by the parents of said students or other person in a position of loco parentis, and a copy thereof forwarded immediately to the principal of the school in which said child is in attendance."

SIU Seeking Ok for Computer Science Dept.
Southern Illinois University at Carbondale will ask the Illinois Board of Higher Education to approve establishment of a new department of computer science within the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

A master's degree program in computer science has been operating at SIU-Carbondale since 1969, but not as an independent department. Courses and staff members have been drawn from existing resources in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, School of Business and School of Technology.

The SIU board of trustees agreed that the program could better be managed as a separate department, particularly to meet expected demands and needs at the bachelor's and doctoral degree level.

Auditions May 9 for Age 12-21 Symphony

The Women's Association of the St. Louis Symphony Society has announced formation of the St. Louis Symphony Youth Orchestra, an organization for young musicians between the ages of 12 and 21. Conductor and musical director is Leonard Slatkin, assistant conductor of the St. Louis Symphony.

In a letter to educators of the metropolitan area, Slatkin said the aims are "to find the highest caliber of young musicians in the area, bring them together to learn orchestral repertoire and the pleasures of good musicmaking, and encourage and promote musical activity within the framework of the music education system."

Special emphasis will be placed on introducing young musicians to the environment of a professional orchestra. The group will investigate symphonic music within the surroundings of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.

The Symphony guest conductors will be invited to lead the Youth Orchestra in rehearsals, and Conductor Walter Susskind will take an active role as well.

Auditions will be held all day Saturday, May 9, at Powell Symphony Hall.

All but percussionists must provide their own instruments for use at rehearsals. Each applicant is further expected to continue to participate in the musical programs of his own school.

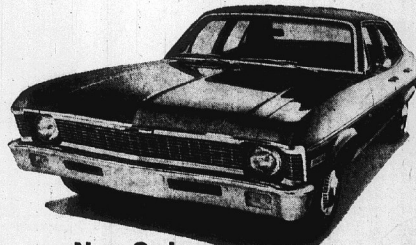

The Youth Orchestra will begin its rehearsals in October 1970 and will meet through May 1971. Rehearsals will be held at Powell Hall on Saturdays from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m., excluding holidays and the touring period of the Symphony Orchestra. Initial plans include presenting two or three concerts during the first season.

The Women's Association reports that application forms and further information concerning the St. Louis Symphony Youth Orchestra may be obtained by calling Mrs. Edith Houghland, manager, at 644-1696.

In 10 Days Lose 10 Lbs On Grapefruit Diet

HOLLYWOOD, CALIF. This is the revolutionary grapefruit special diet that is exciting the nation. Thousands have been passing copies of it from hand-to-hand in offices, plants, and factories throughout the country.

Because this diet really works, we have testimonials reporting on its success. If you follow it exactly, you should LOSE 10 LBS. IN 10 DAYS. No weight loss in the first four days, but you will suddenly drop 5 lbs. by the 5th day. Thereafter lose a pound a day until the 10th day. Then you will lose 1 1/2 lbs. every two days until you get down to your proper weight. Best of all, you will have no hunger pangs. Revised a n d enlarged, this diet lets you stuff yourself with formerly "forbidden" foods, such as steaks trimmed with fat, roast or fried chicken, gravies, mayonnaise, fish swimming in butter or vegetable oil, frankfurters and scrambled eggs and still lose weight. The secret behind this "quick weight loss" diet is simple. Fat doesn't form fat — and the grapefruit juice in this diet acts as the "trigger" to start the fat-burning process. You stuff yourself on the permitted food listed in the diet plan, and still lose unsightly fat and excess bodily fluids. A copy of this startling successful diet can be obtained by sending only $2 to:

Ranft Outlines Tri-City Port For Rotarians

Activities at the Tri-City Region Port Authority were described by Carl Ranft for members of the Granite City Rotary Club at a luncheon meeting Tuesday at the Y.M.C.A.
He told the men's club that the Port Authority, which is operated on state funds, leases 217 acres from the government and owns 80 acres. River shipping is geared to bulk, long-distance hauling which is more economical, costing three mills per mile, compared to railroad shipping at nine cents per mile and trucking at 14 cents a mile.
The shipments at the port include such items as coal, soy bean meal, shelled corn, rock salt and fertilizer, both liquid and dry. Ranft indicated that much of the port activity is transfer work, as barges arriving in from the south and must transfer cargo to different barges because of the depth of the Missouri and Mississippi rivers.
He told of a new "lash" barge which is smaller in size. It travels to New Orleans where it is actually loaded onto ocean going vessels bound for Europe. It is designed to travel the more narrow rivers of Europe.
This is one of the newer systems of work at the port and the other will be a drive on-drive off project.
The guest speaker praised the opening of Federal Aid Route 151 in the next step of making the port more efficient. Trucks there may travel on better roads to and from the port, he remarked.
A new warehouse is expected to be ready for use in August for liquid and dry cargo, and in the future there will be a greater need for more warehouse space.
John Polson, vice-president, presided at the meeting and Homer Huber introduced the featured speaker.

Miss Lanier to Speak At Grace Baptist

Miss Minnie Lou Lanier, a Southern Baptist missionary, will be guest speaker at Grace Baptist Church, 2800 Edwards street, for the World Mission Conferences during the week of April 26, through May 1.
She also will speak at other Baptist churches throughout Madison county during the week. The church will be conducting services each evening at 7:30 and will be cooperating with other churches of Madison County Baptist Association.
Miss Lanier has been promoting Baptist work throughout Brazil. During much of that time she was closely associated with Girls' Auxiliary (GA) work. When a national worker assumed GA leadership, Miss Lanier became Women's Missionary Society director for Brazil.

St. Elizabeth Pupils Give Hawaiian Program

The fourth grade pupils of St. Elizabeth school, under the guidance of their teacher, Margaret Richardson, presented a Hawaiian program to their parents and friends at the school recently, in conjunction with their history class which is presently studying Hawaii.
The children gave information on the climate, occupations, history and points of interest in the islands using decorations in this theme to illustrate their subject.

Kiwanis Club Hears About Trip to Hawaii

Michael Toundas was the guest speaker at Monday's dinner meeting of the Granite City Kiwanis Club, held at the Rose Bowl, and was introduced by Marvin Barnes, program chairman for this meeting.
Toundas, a past president of the club, spoke on his recent trip to Hawaii, stressing that anyone who is planning a trip to Hawaii should include a tour of all the islands.
Norman Hall, president, presided at the meeting, leading discussions on future projects and events. The annual boat races was discussed and it was announced the tickets will go on sale next week for the race scheduled for August.
A progress report was given by Floyd Eaton, who is still a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Kenneth Gregory, 51, Succumbs to Cancer

Kenneth L. Gregory, 51, of 2318 East 25th street, a lifelong resident of Granite City, died at 9:15 p.m. Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital after a lengthy illness, suffering from cancer. He had undergone surgery on Dec. 16 and was hospitalized until Jan. 4 and returned as a patient two weeks ago.
His employment was at General Steel Industries where he was a foreman.
Surviving are one daughter, Miss Deborah Gregory of Dallas, Texas; one brother, William Gregory; two sisters, Mrs. Roy (Mary) Meredith and Mrs. Floyd (Minnie) Dillard all of Granite City.
Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Water Co. Rate Hike Hearing Date-May 5

Granite City council members were advised Monday night by the Illinois Commerce Commission of a continuation of rate-increase hearings for the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. with oral arguments to be heard May 5 at Springfield.
The 47% rate boost is being opposed by Granite City and other municipalities as well as industrial groups served by the water company.
City Atty. Scroggins has been attending the hearings as an objector for the city. The May 5 hearing will start at 10:30 a.m. in the commission's office at the state capital.

State PTA to Sue If Private Aid Is Voted

For the first time in its history, the Illinois PTA may participate in court action seeking to prevent aid to non-public schools.

A legal challenge has been authorized if any legislation giving state money to private schools is enacted into law. The PTA has been one of the opponents of non-public school aid in past discussions of the issue.

The state PTA also is seeking increased availability of birth control information and services, and reform of Illinois abortion laws.

The PTA, which has been under attack from some groups because of its position in favor of sex education in schools, has reconfirmed its position with a strongly-worded policy statement. At the same time, it favors permitting parents to examine teaching materials and to withdraw their children from sex education classes.
